DETAILED ACTION

Specification

1. The title of the invention is not descriptive. A new title is required that is clearly indicative of the invention to which the claims are directed.

Drawings

2. Figure 6 should be designated by a legend such as --Prior Art-- because only that which is old is illustrated. See MPEP § 608.02(g). Corrected drawings in compliance with 37 CFR 1.121(d) are required in reply to the Office action to avoid abandonment of the application. The replacement sheet(s) should be labeled "Replacement Sheet" in the page header (as per 37 CFR 1.84(c)) so as not to obstruct any portion of the drawing figures. If the changes are not accepted by the examiner, the applicant will be notified and informed of any required corrective action in the next Office action. The objection to the drawings will not be held in abeyance.

Claim Rejections - 35 USC § 103

3. The following is a quotation of 35 U.S.C. 103(a) which forms the basis for all obviousness rejections set forth in this Office action:

(a) A patent may not be obtained though the invention is not identically disclosed or described as set forth in section 102 of this title, if the differences between the subject matter sought to be patented and the prior art are such that the subject matter as a whole would have been obvious at the time the invention was made to a person having ordinary skill in the art to which said subject matter pertains. Patentability shall not be negated by the manner in which the invention was made.

4. Claims 1-4 are rejected under 35 U.S.C. 103(a) as being unpatentable over U.S. Patent No. 5,813,705 to Dole in view of U.S. Patent No. 5,441,202 to Wintering et al.

Dole discloses a pipe coupling system having:

-a first water pipe (24) and a second water pipe (20) connected to each other as to be freely disconnectable and reconnectable..

-both end portions of the first water pipe are formed such that the outer diameter is equal to the inner diameter of the second pipe. See Figure 3.

-a plurality of first engaging protrusions (38) are formed on one end of the first water pipe around the longitudinal axis.

-a plurality of second engaging protrusions (36) are formed at one end fo each second water pipe so as to engage with the first protrusions on the first water pipe.

-the pipelines can be disengaged by pulling the two parts away from each other (after the retainer (34) has been pulled out. See column 4 lines 5 to 8)

-each engaging recess of the inner surface of the portion of each second pipe is continued, in the circumferential direction of the inner surface, smoothly to the inner surface. See Figures 3 and 4.

Dole does not disclose the addition of a sprinkler head within a groove of the pipe. Wintering discloses a pipe spraying system with a sprinkler (32) contained within a groove of the pipe (17). It would have been obvious to one having ordinary skill in the art at the time the invention was made to modify the piping system of Dole with the sprinklers of Wintering in order to spray water contained within the piping.

Allowable Subject Matter

5. Claims 5 and 6 are objected to as being dependent upon a rejected base claim, but would be allowable if rewritten in independent form including all of the limitations of the base claim and any intervening claims.

Conclusion

6. The prior art made of record and not relied upon is considered pertinent to applicant's disclosure. U.S Patent No. 3,283,780 discloses a pipe coupling system-having protrusions on two pipes that interconnect. U.S. Patent No. 1,260,690 to Liady discloses a pipe coupling system-having protrusions on two pipes that interconnect. U.S. Patent No. 2,195,492 to McDonald discloses a pipe coupling system-having protrusions on two pipes that interconnect. U.S. Patent No. 5,188,399 to Durina discloses a pipe coupling system-having protrusions on two pipes that interconnect.
